

All About Private Lessons

Who Can Take Private Lessons?

Learn to Skate Members: Skaters who are currently enrolled in the AAFSC Learn to Skate program are permitted up to ONE 50-minute lesson/ice session per week.

Club Membership: Skaters with current AAFSC Membership are not limited in their number of lessons/ice sessions. Learn more about the different memberships offered at the Ann Arbor FSC HERE. Skaters wishing to upgrade their membership type, should contact the AAFSC Office at aaafc@annarborfsc.org or 734-213-6768

Selecting a Coach for Private Lessons

When selecting a private lesson coach, start by referencing our AAFSC Coaches webpage. From there, you will be able to read all about our array of coaches, to help you find the one that would best suit you. Feel free to reach out to any coach of your choosing!

Purchasing Ice Sessions for a Private Lesson

Once you and your coach have decided on a lesson time, you will be required to purchase the ice session(s). Learn more about our Ice Session times and prices, HERE.

Important Notes

Skaters with LTS Membership are not permitted to purchase ice sessions outside of their once-weekly private lesson time. Most private lessons run for 25 minutes, but that is dependent on your coach and their availability.

*Coach Fees for private lessons are paid directly to the coach and are separate from the ice session fees.
